my enchanting val-en-tine. Though the days are sharp and cold. Though the winds are rovers bold.
my be-lov-ed val-en-tine. Through the ice and through the snow, Till the summer ros-es blow, f 1 mo. Allegretto un poco agitato. p

Though the winds are rovers bold Day will sev-er not from me One I love so ten-der-ly.
Till the summer ros-es blow I will seek her up and down. Seek him both in field and town.
